

Level 2 Old Scheme kayak Assessment

Thank you for booking with Fluidskills.com

before you attend your training course with us we require you to complete a few tasks for the BCU paper work and to get you started on your way for development.

Please complete the following before your course starts

- complete the 20 hours coaching logged time with your logbook
- have a stamped C1 form
- have £17.50 BCU assessment fee
- have all your certificates with you
- have the appropriate equipment for your sessions.

The Day assessment will be based at Haven Banks OEC in Exeter, we will be meeting at 9.00 am to get the paper work done and get you out on the water as soon as possible.

your sessions will need to last around 2 hours with your clients , they will be requiring you to develop their skills towards 2 star level or above as you see fit.

after your session you will be required to show your skills of 3 star level and a few basic rescues.

we aim to have the day wrapped up by 4.00 pm
